

from 2nd June to 6th June 2019 in Salzburg, Austria

Agriculture in the tension between economics and ecology – Advisory services and education as mediation

Venue: Seminar Hotel Heffterhof Salzburg, 5020 Salzburg www.heffterhof.at

Agenda: fascinating lectures, diverse workshops and various topic-related excursions

- Role of advisory services in the field of tension between economy and ecology
- Efficient and digital methods in education and consulting
- Role of advisory services and innovation in the CAP post 2020

Framework Program: guided tour of the City of Mozart, welcome evening at Hotel Heffterhof, social evening at the Zistelalm, a former farmhouse on the Gaisberg (www.zistelalm.at)

In the countryside and yet close to the old town of Salzburg – which makes the IALB Conference 2019 an ideal meeting place for professional exchange, networking beyond one's own borders, further development of education and consulting services, as well as insights into the agricultural structure of Salzburg and Austria.

Conference program will be published on 5th February 2019
on our homepage